Siddharth University, Kapilvastu, Siddharth Nagar is a state university located at Kapilvastu, Siddharth Nagar, Uttar Pradesh, India. It was established on 17 June 2015. The university is situated in the abode of Lord Buddha. Siddharth University was established as a State University, in June 2015, at Kapilvastu, Siddharth Nagar, India. The University has an objective of enlightening and igniting the young minds while blending traditional wisdom with modern education. This center of higher learning is focused on serving the world with the qualified and skilled manpower that have high moral and ethical values. Buddha's path of inquiry is the core of the learning and academic rigor at Siddharth University. Over a period, the University had gained its reputation for its academic distinction and adapting the contemporary practices with agility and speed, in academic process, community engagement, technology and governance. The University currently caters to more than two hundred thousand students across the two hundred and eighty affiliated colleges as well as in campus.

The University caters to all the sections of the society. It extends support to socially and economically weaker sections of the society through its cost-effective measures and scholarships. The institution has gained its position for its academic prowess and is gaining momentum to be among the best destinations of learning at higher education level. The rippling flag of India on a 105 ft. pole in the University campus, at the international border, exhibits the commitment of the institution for being a national pride in and across the borders. We invite you to be a part of this institution and embrace the divine learning at the land of Buddha, at Kapilvastu.
